
The Tamil film Hangover is set in a college campus. The protagonist, Uma Krishnan, graduate of the prestigious Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Chennai, is sent to an IIT college for police training. She has no idea how fierce the competition is as she enters this new hub of students and challenges herself to overcome their academic and cultural dominance with her intelligence, wit and perseverance. Uma Krishnan embodies our modern Indian woman on-screen: blunt-speaking but not saucy; smart but not bossy; quick on her feet without compromising her femininity. She's a powerful personality who drives on equal terms with men and doesn't tolerate being pushed around or treated as inferior. The movie stars Sayaji Shinde as the protagonist, with Sunaina and debutante Radhika Pandit as her friends. It also stars Dimple Kapadia, Shaleen from "Hum Tum", Nandish Sandhu, Saurabh Shukla, Mihir Mishra and Aditya Kumar among others. The music is composed by A. R. Rahman who had composed for the Tamil film "Nayakan". Prior to this film, Sayaji Shinde had worked in a series of English movies including "Dan Dan the Merciless" (2013), "Taxi No. 9211" (2013) and "Ek Villain" (2012). He was also seen in "Gulaab Gang" (2014) and in Bollywood projects such as "Ai Ab Laut Chalen" (2014) and "Main Aur Mr. Right" (2015). The film opened to mixed reviews from critics, who appreciated the acting and performance but found the love story and screenplay weak. Besides, they pointed out that the movie had a lot of profanity, which was not suitable for Tamil audience. However, it went on to become a big hit at Box Office India, grossing 19.5 crore INR in its lifetime run. The movie was dubbed into Hindi under the name "Hangover Hindi" by Fox Star Studios, with completely different cast and characters. But the film failed to get released in India.

The Music Was Composed By A. R. Rahman, while lyrics were penned by Vaali,Na. Muthukumar, Vivek who did the original version in Tamil. The song "Muniyara Muniyara" sung by Aditya Kumar went on to become a chartbuster not just in Tamil Nadu but all over India. [Including Bihar]. This song now plays regularly on all the FM channels. This song has 7 Verses sung by multiple singers, including female singers like Asha Bhosle, Kavitha Krishnamurthy. The playback singers include Sunanda Burman, Farida Khanum, Sohini Devi, Sonu Nigam and Lata Mangeshkar. The song was released with an album by A.R.Rahman at Times of India music awards. Another interesting fact is that this film's music has been featured in dozens of commercials by Sony Ericsson mobile phone giant tagline to be "Now that the night is here, you are never alone" .
